How do your goals fit with our mission statement (to work for the prevention and intervention of mental illness through education, awareness, and research)?

Why do you want to be a guest blogger? In general, which topics are you most interested in writing about?

What is your personal/professional interest advocating for/writing about mental health?

At Where I Stand, we work diligently to spread hope and light in the face of darkness and challenge. Please explain what that means to you and how you intend to do so through your posts for Where I Stand.

In our society, there is oftentimes a stigma associated with mental illness. What is your opinion on this matter?

Do you have any questions, comments or concerns for the Where I Stand founders?

Thank you for your interest in Where I Stand. We will review your application and then contact you to set up an interview.
